SPEAK. THINK. PERSUADE: DEBATE CLUB

BUILDING CONFIDENCE THROUGH THE POWER OF WORDS!

INTRODUCTION

Our Debate Club develops critical thinking and public speaking skills, empowering children to express their ideas clearly and confidently. Participants engage in structured debates on a range of topics, learning to build persuasive arguments, challenge opposing viewpoints, and present their ideas with conviction. This well-established club has been a part of Carleton House for several years, delivered by the experienced educators from Debate Academy. It is offered to children in Years 3 to 6 on rotational basis.
