SIGN LANGUAGE CLUB

SIGN LANGAUGE CLUB
HANDS THAT SPEAK

EMPOWERING COMMUNICATION AND INCLUSIVITY!

INTRODUCTION

Our Sign Language Club helps children develop valuable communication skills while promoting inclusivity and understanding of the deaf community. Pupils learn basic sign language through interactive activities and gain insights into deaf culture, fostering empathy and respect. This club encourages children to connect with a broader range of people, breaking down barriers and building awareness of diverse ways to communicate. The club is run by Mrs Hendrick and is available for children in Years 3 to 6 during the Autumn term.
